The Arkansas papers complain, in very serious terms, of an order issued by Major General Ord, forbidding the payment of bills for printing, executed under contract with, or by orders from, the Legislature of the State. The proprietors of the Little Rock Gazette, who are State printers, are seriously affected by this order.

The Secretary of War has been authorized to issue 1,000 breech loading arms and 50,000 cartridges, from the Leavenworth arsenal, to the Union Pacific railway company, eastern division, to enable their engineers and working parties to protect themselves against Indian attacks. The company have already received 500 Spencer rifles for the same purpose.

Charles Kufert, a partner in the house of A. J. Trounstine & Co., wholesale clothiers, Cincinnati, attempted suicide Saturday night by shooting himself through the head with a pistol. Kufert is worth at least $100,000, yet for some time past has been laboring under a hallucination that he would come to poverty, and during a fit of his mania, went up to the garrett of his residence on Eighth street, and shot himself. Kufert died Sunday.

Mayor Anderson, Hon. Julian Hartridge, General H. R. Jackson, Judge Law, and other prominent citizens of Savannah, made a formal demand on the Board of Registration, Saturday, to register all names presented who have full pardons from the President. The Board, after consultation, decided that under General Pope's instructions, they would be compelled to decline until further instructions were received from headquarters.

On Tuesday last, in Oneonta, Otsego county, New York, Victor Beach murdered his mother by shooting her first in the head and then in the pelvis. He next shot himself, the ball entering his right eye and passing out of the ear. When discovered the mother was dead, but Beach was breathing and soon revived. He says he was drunk and mad; that he meant to kill his mother and destroy his own life. Beach is a cripple.

The Treasury department has given notice to holders of 7-30 notes. It is now prepared to give in exchange for such notes 5-20 bonds, issued under act of March 3, 1865, redeemable after five years and payable in twenty years from the first of July, 1867.

The Bolivar Bulletin of last Saturday contains the account of a fiendish outrage upon a widow lady, whose name is not given, by a negro calling himself Alexander Polk. The dreadful occurrence took place in the sixteenth civil district, on the Sunday night previous. The wretch is now confined in the Bolivar jail for trial.

We are pleased to observe from the Canadian press that an old Arkansas neighbor, Dr. Luke P. Blackburn is as highly esteemed in the home of his exile, as he was in the South, where none knew him but to esteem and regard him. The Canadian Freeman published at Toronto, informs us that during his residence at that place he has made himself a host of friends. During the epidemic in Bermuda, he volunteered his services and by his great professional skill saved many an English soldier's life, at the risk of his own, without fee or reward. This has attached the Canadian people to him by ties indissoluble. As an evidence of it we learn from the Freeman that on last Monday week while a number of gentlemen were enjoying his hospitality, an elegant English brougham drawn by a thorough bred Canadian horse of great beauty dashed along the gravel road leading to the Widmer mansion, where the Doctor is residing. On behalf of the subscribers, Mr. Saunderson, of the Grand Trunk, in a neat address presented the splendid equipage, through the Doctor to Mrs. Blackburn. Very much affected by such a demonstration of kindness and friendship, he returned a feeling reply. Among those present were ex-Senator Mason, late Commissioner to Europe of the Confederate States; his son, M. Mason; General Early, the Agamemnon of the Southern army; Col. Dorsey, of Maryland; Capt. Winder, do; Hon. Isaac Buchanan, Messrs Jaques, Mulligan, St. Louis, Benson, John Cameron, Lindsay and Gregg, Leader; Moylan, Freeman; Robertson, Telegraph; Craig, Dincen, Joseph, etc., in all about forty. After the presentation those present partook of a sumptuous repast. After enjoying a few hours most agreeably the company dispersed to their respective homes.

AN INTERVIEW WITH BROWNLOW.

The New York Times' Correspondent at Brownlow's Home.

What Brownlow Tells Him.

The special correspondent of the New York Times was in Knoxville on the 16th of June, and visited Brownlow at his own home. He gives us the result of his interview in a letter dated the 18th. We give as much of it as our space will afford. He begins:

There is in Knoxville an old man, who, to all appearance, can with literal truth say of Tennessee what Louis Quatorze used to say of himself and France: "The State, 'tis I—L'etat c'est moi." This old man is W. G. Brownlow, Doctor of Divinity and Governor of Tennessee. Conceiving that one touches here the fountain head of Tennessee politics, such as they are, I went with a friend on Sunday to see his Reverend Excellency.

He is afflicted with a palsy, which causes his hands to shake violently ("rheumatism," he said to me in unsolicited explanation), and his throat has been so ruined by Tennessee stumping and preaching that he can now speak only with "bated breath."

But on the whole, I must say he presented a rather sad spectacle as he lay there, the old man, cadaverous and paralytic, breathing forth, like another Saul of Tarsus, threatenings and slaughters. Involuntarily, by some secret sally of association, there came to my mind, as I sat beside him, the image of Lincoln and the thought of that divine sentiment of his: "Malice toward none, charity for all;" and it seemed if one should reverse the maxim to "charity for none, malice toward all," one would not have a bad epitome of Brownlow, as he shows himself these latter days. The conversation was as was inevitable, soon fell on politics, that is to say, on the canvas which is now raging with such ferocity in this State.

Of Etheredge's prospects of election, Brownlow speaks derisively; and he estimates his own majority at thirty-five thousand. "I put it before at thirty-five thousand," he said, "I now put it at thirty-five thousand." In this count he sets on his own side, first, the solid negro vote, which is about thirty thousand, and, secondly, the majority of the registered white vote, the total of which I am told is between forty-five thousand and fifteen thousand.

He declares that the State is full of the spirit of the rebellion; and as an illustration of this he gave me to read a letter which he had just received from somebody in Purdy, McNairy county, stating that the writer was afraid of his life, which had been threatened by the "rebels" on account of his Union (Brownlow) sentiments. [That is decidedly rich for a county in which an ex-Confederate life is not safe, and in which Fielding Hurst lives.] He thinks, too, that the troops will be absolutely necessary at the August election; for he believes that the "rebels," finding they are not able to influence or control the negroes in voting, "will go to work to drive them from the polls." Nevertheless, I think there must have been something that has given him pause in this militia business, for though he has the power by legislation to raise 8000 men, he told me that he was not for the present intending to call out any more than he has "in the field," which is some ten or twelve companies, say a thousand men. When I referred to the case of Gresham, the militia captain at Bristol, who summoned three justices of the peace to his camp to adjudicate on a quarrel between a man and his wife, he said it was certainly very ridiculous; "but these young fellows who were in the army have not got over the idea that the military ought to put everything through." I then asked him in regard to the case of the citizen Brown, who was killed in Franklin county by some of Captain Rickman's men—a case about which there has been a great deal of excitement, a public meeting and a deputation sent to Washington. He replied by showing me a letter which he had received from his Adjutant General, Mr. Hunt, detailing the substance of a conversation he had had with General Whipple, (Chief of Staff to General Thomas,) who had just returned from Franklin county, whither he had gone to investigate the matter. From this report it seems that Whipple justifies the killing, and advises that if Rickman's company is withdrawn another shall be sent down there. Of course the only proper way of determining the case is to bring it before a civil court, and it was some time ago officially announced that Rickman had been arrested to be held to trial. But on mentioning this to Governor Brownlow I was astonished to learn from him that he had changed his mind in this regard, and is going to substitute a military inquisition. Remembering Brownlow's former fierce war against Abolitionism and the blacks, I was curious to learn what had converted him to his present ardent negrophilism; but I could not discover that he had been moved by any very lofty impulse. He was an enemy of emancipation, and went dead against the enfranchisement of the negro; and it was only after he began to realize what might be done with the blacks as a political power, that he became their champion. He has certainly been very successful in rallying them to his standard; for I found them working for Brownlow, praying for Brownlow, bent on voting for Brownlow, and willing to fight for Brownlow. I made several inquiries of the Governor respecting the cause of the sweeping measure he has lately taken in setting aside the registration of some eight or ten counties. This I did of course with the view of finding out something more definite than the vague charge of "fraud or irregularity," on the mere statement of which he can, by a mere stroke of the pen, obliterate the political identity of any district; but he seemed to have no satisfactory explanation, at least none that he cared to propound, though he talked freely on every other subject. He left me, however, in no doubt of his determination to carry the election at all hazards—a determination which one of Brownlow's champions and a Judge of one of the Circuit Courts declared in a very frank avowal. "We are bound," said he, "we are bound to carry this election, if we do it through blood."

This concluded his interview with Brownlow. The writer, however, goes on to give his views of politics in Tennessee. He says:

Well, in truth Tennessee is in a most lamentable condition—a condition compared with which that of Virginia or Georgia is one of Utopian happiness. And I believe the root of the evil is found in the fact that Tennessee had the misfortune to be reconstructed too early.

Referring to the condition of things in Tennessee at the time of the surrender, he says: I have no doubt that there remained at this period a great deal of the animus of the rebellion, latent but unsubdued, which in many cases found vent in a malignant spirit, and in acts that made Union men feel that their lives and property were insecure. But in place of checking this lawlessness by a vigorous execution of the law, Brownlow rather gave it freer rein, by openly encouraging lawlessness in return. It is a lamentable fact, he publicly advised, from the stump and through the Knoxville Whig, the robbing and murdering of those who had taken sides or sympathized with the South, and to insure the execution of this advice he promised that if any of his followers should be convicted by the courts of the country for such acts of violence, and sentenced to the Penitentiary, he, as Governor of Tennessee, "would meet them at the depot in Nashville with pardons." Is it, then, wonderful if, in the existing state of society emerging from a civil war, when passion and local hatreds and the appetite for plunder were rife, many availed themselves of the license thus thrust into their hands by the chief executive officer of the State?

* * * * *

The enfranchisement of the blacks was the logical result of the war; and from my experience in the South I believe this act of justice will vindicate itself. But when what are called the "Radicals" in Tennessee claim that it was they alone that championed and carried through these measures, they arrogate to themselves what the facts do not justify, and what the history of Tennessee legislation clearly disproves. For it is matter of legislative record that when that first proposition, looking to the enlargement of the rights of the negro—to wit, the proposition to give the negro the right to testify—came up, it was bitterly opposed by many who are now the most loud mouthed "Radicals," that it found its most earnest champions among men who now call themselves "Conservatives," and that it was finally only carried in the House by the parliamentary tactics of a "Conservative" member.

Referring to the passage of the second Franchise law, he says: It seems, however, that grave doubts soon arose as to the success of Brownlowism, even though thus fortified, and the result was made perpetual, and the "Registration Act" was passed. The distinguishing feature of this law is that none can vote except such as hold certificates from the Governor's appointees, who, so far as my observation goes, are violent and unscrupulous partisans. But to this you must add that if registration is made which, however fair it may be, shall yet show any likelihood of casting a majority against Brownlow, (a matter which can at any time be ascertained by canvassing the "League,") he has the power with a stroke of his pen to annul the whole, and leave the citizens of any such county disfranchised as long as he may please. He has already exercised this power in the case of some eight or more counties, and it is a notable fact that this was not done until it was ascertained that they would give the opposition a majority of about six thousand votes.

Nor does this exhaust the expedients adopted, for when the negro was brought into the political arena, it seems that those in power still felt some misgivings as to how he, if left uncontrolled, would vote. So, thereupon, they organized a wide spread system of secret leagues, which have been busily engaged in training solid cohorts of black Brownlowites; and under the guise of protection for these, but without the shadow of necessity, they made provision for a standing army of 8,000 militia, some dozen companies of which are now scattered throughout the State, to the intolerable annoyance of all good citizens. I met, I believe, the most sensible of these militia captains at Bristol; and yet this person had the effrontery to tell a gentleman who is running for the Legislature, a staunch Union man throughout the whole war, and a National Republican in politics—I say he had the audacity to tell this gentleman, who had occasion to dissect, in a temperate manner, some of the financial extravagances of the State Government, that he "should regard it as treason to discuss or criticise the acts of the Legislature."

Finally, there remained another step. Until a few months ago the Judges of Elections were appointed by the County Court—a tribunal which, as it is elected by the people, may fairly be presumed to represent their wishes. Well, this last vestige of privilege was withdrawn, and the duty of appointing the men in whose hands is vested the guardianship of the purity of the ballot box intrusted to the Registrars of voters. And so the system was made complete in all its parts and members and the centralization of all powers lodged in Brownlow. If he had set out to devise a series of moves to so intrench himself that in spite of law, of order and of all constitutional provisions, he could not be dislodged by the ballot box, it would have been impossible to conceive a more ingeniously effective scheme. For the old body politic is practically erased and submerged; of the 150,000 voters 100,000 are disfranchised; and the vote of that portion of the people that still retains the suffrage is practically in the pocket of a paralytic old man who seems to be controlled almost wholly by the morbid passions and animosities engendered by the war. Under such circumstances an election in Tennessee will be little more than a parody on the Napoleonic plebis.de.

TENNESSEE ITEMS.

A daughter of Dr. J. A. Sumpter, of Pulaski, was painfully burned Thursday by her clothes catching fire.

Mr. Alfred Miller, an old citizen, died at his residence near Murfreesboro, last Monday night, of apoplexy, aged sixty-nine years.

The Chattanooga Union says: "Some sixty thousand bushels of corn are expected from up the upper Tennessee, the recent rise having made it practicable to float it down."

The Nashville Union and Dispatch says: "We understand that about three hundred citizens of Davidson county will leave for Brazil in the course of the present week."

The same paper says: "New wheat has commenced coming in by rail. Three car loads were brought down yesterday by the Louisville and Nashville railroad from Hendersonville, Sumner county."

Tuesday last a white and black boy got to quarreling at University Place, near Winchester. Both parties picked up sticks, and an unfortunate blow terminated the life of the negro.

Captain R. J. Sheridan, said to be of Nashville, has been appointed Commissioner of Registration for Giles county. He opened his office on the 28th inst., and proposes to close it on the 20th of July. He is a total stranger to the people of Giles.

The Fourth of July will be celebrated at Springfield, Robertson county, Tennessee, by a grand bran dance and picnic. People of all color are invited to attend, and the meeting is to be addressed by Joseph E. Williams and Elias Polk (colored), of Nashville, and ex-Governor Foote (white), of Mississippi. A glorious old time is promised.

A curiously wrought water jar and part of a human skeleton have been taken from an ancient grave about nine miles from Nashville. There are some hundreds of similar graves in the vicinity, of which the Indians informed the early settlers they knew nothing. The jar closely resembles similar utensils now used by the Indians of Central America.

The Nashville Banner says that Captain James Clift, an old citizen of Warren county, who commanded a company in the 5th Tennessee (Federal) cavalry, and has hitherto supported the administration of Governor Brownlow, writes a letter to the Chattanooga Union, in which he withdraws, for reasons which are clearly stated, from the Brownlow organization. He will vote for Etheridge.

The Nashville Union and Dispatch says that on Friday night, at a little after nine o'clock, Pleasant Terry, colored, a member of Captain James Sumner's company of colored militia, now stationed at Buena Vista springs, became involved in a difficulty with a mulatto named Harris, at the saloon of Allen McTeer, at No. 65 Gay street, between College and Cherry, and fired at him with a pistol. He missed Harris, however, and the ball struck a militiaman named Tony Cato, who was also a member of Sumner's company. The wounded man staggered to a bench, saying he was shot, and expired in a few minutes, the ball having entered his heart. Terry then ran to the door, but was stopped by Harris, who held him until the arrival of the police, when he was taken to jail.

The Fayette Falcon, printed at Somerville, says: "We learn that John Manley, an old man upward of sixty years of age, who resided near Oakland, in this county, committed suicide on the 17th instant, by shooting himself through the neck with a shot gun."

We learn from the Bolivar Bulletin that on last Tuesday, Rev. N. A. D. Bryant, registration officer for Hardeman, opened his books in that place and proceeded to issue certificates.

Sharp Hits at the Liquor Law.

An "Alabamian," who has been in Boston, thus hits off the prohibitory law:

"Boston seems to be growing worse every day in intolerance. They won't allow a circus to have the 'horizontal bar' or a band of 'tumblers.' Trance mediums are forbidden to practice because they call in the aid of spirits. Opticians are watched, because it is said people get their glasses there. The London Punch and Wilkes' Spirit are forbidden to be sold by the periodical dealers. Apothecaries are forbidden to sell liquor-ice! People are not allowed to eat sour apples, and are liable to be arrested on the streets for being in high spirits! Children who complain of the stomach are locked up for fear it might be sham pain. Men are arrested on suspicion of being distillers, who are caught rectifying mistakes! Hotels have had to take 'rum omelets' and 'wine sauce' off their bills of fare. All booksellers selling histories containing an account of the 'Battle of Brandywine' are closed at once. Dead can not be buried on a bier! Vessels are not allowed to come into the harbor because they have to pass a bar in doing so; and sea captains are not allowed to take any port in a storm; if they do they must tell where they got it! Enterprising men dare not show any public spirit, and even the poor washer women can only dry two sheets at a time, as any one is liable to arrest who has 'three in the wind!'"

WASHINGTON COLLEGE, VIRGINIA.

Annual Commencement.

This celebrated institution of learning, of which General Robert E. Lee is President, held its first annual commencement since the war on the 20th of June. The public will be gratified to learn that the college is on the high road to the greatest success. The annual oration was delivered by Mr. Thos. T. Eaton, of Tennessee, who graduated with high distinction. The Law Class oration was pronounced by Mr. Charles A. Donegan, of Alabama. The address before the Literary Societies was delivered by that eloquent public divine, Rev. Moses D. Hoge.

Among the graduates were T. T. Eaton and Robert F. Patterson, of Tennessee, and Milton Humes and Charles A. Donegan, of Alabama.

Among the young gentlemen who carried off honors in their respective classes were the following:

J W Baugh, N B Cheairs, D C Cockrell (of Memphis), Robert Ewing, R W Foster, J W Gordon, S B Kennedy, W G Taylor, T T Eaton, Alston Boyd, J W Ewing, G B Percy, G B Peters, R S Thomson, C Deadrick (of Memphis), L S Frierson, J F McCallum, W N Robertson, J H Jameson, W H Washington, H B Branner, W M Johnston, C B Percy, J M Kennedy, W A Brown, W Caswell, W E Colyar, J A Leiper and R F Patterson, of Tennessee; S R Cockrill and Jno Green, of Arkansas; J M Grey, W G Cochrane, N B Feagin, J McLester, A S Stewart, Frank Coleman, R S Neville, J F Pinder, John G Crommelin, A S Stewart, A G McCorkle, Chas A Donegan and Milton Humes, of Alabama; J F Jenkins, J P Billups, J T Hunt and B F Shields, of Mississippi. We regret that we have not space for the names of all who were distinguished, but our limits have only permitted us to publish those whose names are of especial interest to our readers.

The Gas Question.

MESSRS. EDITORS—Having recently visited some of the principal cities of the North and East, I desire, for the information of the citizens of Memphis, and especially gas consumers, to lay before them my observations and information on the subject of gas. In all the cities I visited, I found the price of gas ranging from $1 75 to $3 50 per thousand feet, or say on an average of $2 75. In two of the cities with direct water communications—viz: Cincinnati and Pittsburg—I found in the former place the price of gas $2 50 per thousand feet, the stock at par paying a handsome dividend. Negotiations are now pending between the gas company and the city authorities; the latter being desirous of purchasing the works, thinking the present price too high. I was informed in Cincinnati that Mr. Dean, a resident there, and one of the largest stockholders, has been receiving an income from the Memphis Gas Company of thirty-five to fifty thousand dollars per annum. In Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, the price of gas is $1 75 per thousand feet, paying a dividend of ten per cent. None of their stock in market. On the opposite side of the river, in Alleghaney City, there is another gas works whose price is $2 00 per thousand feet. Both of the companies are in a healthy condition, with a large surplus fund on hand; they could pay a much larger dividend to stockholders were it not for the fact that they are prohibited by the laws of the State. They are now about extending mains for miles in the country. I have not found any place where gas companies were not paying well.

I am informed there is in this city thirty-nine miles of streets, half of which is not laid with gas mains; then there must be a large field for the new company. With these facts before us, having a direct water communication by river with the coal regions, why does this great difference in the cost of gas exist? The price in this city is $6 per thousand feet; as to the quality you have had ample proofs. I am well satisfied you can have gas furnished here for near half the above price. Are we then tamely, without proper efforts, to permit ourselves to be fleeced by this grinding monopoly, thereby filling the pockets of men at a distance who care little for your interests, except so far as to fill their coffers at your expense? Wake up, then, and shake off the incubus.

I do not deem it necessary in this communication to enter into details. It must be plain to the minds of all, the saving to them, at gas at half the present rates. The means to accomplish this are within your reach. A new gas company is already organized here, known as the "Gayoso Gas Company." A considerable amount of stock has already been subscribed; the company require about one hundred thousand dollars more stock. The subscription books will be open at my office for the next six days. This amount, with the assistance assured from abroad, will enable the directory to put the works through, and in operation by next winter. The amount of shares is fifty dollars each. It is the desire of the directory that the stock should be held in small amounts, so as to give the citizens the management and control of their own works. Should the amount of stock above be taken this week, the work will be commenced immediately. This is necessary in view of the fact that our streets are to be paved; hence, the laying of the pipes should commence at once. Hoping gas consumers and others will give this subject their consideration and ready compliance,

I beg to remain,
Very respectfully,
JOHN DONOVAN,
President Gayoso Gas Company.

A Memphian Rivaling Sam Patch.

The following from a Texas paper will interest those of our citizens who remember Mr. Beman:

Mr. S. C. Beman, a gentleman formerly connected with the newspaper press of Memphis, has taken up the role of Sam Patch, and has been astonishing the people of Houston, Texas, by leaping from a hight of eighty-three feet into the water. The following account is from the Houston Transcript, of the 6th ultimo:

The announcement of a leap into the bayou, from the drawbridge, by Mr. Beman, alias Sam Patch No. 2, in the daily papers of this city, was the occasion of much interest, manifested by a numerous collection of spectators at the place designated.

The beautiful banks of the stream presented a picturesque appearance in the distribution of little groups of ladies and gentlemen, and, as it is usual upon such occasions, many of the younger progeny, all waiting with breathless expectation the appearance of the hero of the city.

The delay, however, was but momentary, for in a very short time after the appointed hour Mr. Beman made his appearance from the lower cord of the draw, a distance of forty feet from the surface of the water, attired in the peculiar costume of the acrobat of the Greek arena, and, with wonted composure, precipitated himself, head foremost, into the air, plunging into the water, disappearing but a few seconds, reappearing and resolutely striking out for the shore amid the plaudits of the spectators.

Ascending the draw, which by this time had been opened, a ladder was called for, and in less time than we have been able to pen this, the hero of the leap was seen standing, much to the astonishment of the bewildered crowd, on the pinnacle of the gallows post, with scarcely sufficient footing (measuring only eighteen inches), and at a distance of eighty-three feet in the clear from the water, calmly measuring the distance between himself and eternity, should his body in the descent take the slightest inclination out of a perpendicular line. With one inhalation, and bracing of the chest and body erect, he threw himself into the air in the same position as before, striking the water fairly, recovering himself again, and after but a few struggles reaching the shore as sound a man as when the hazardous undertaking was first contemplated.

We have been informed that this man of the air will make an effort to surpass the unfortunate hero of Niagara, which we fear, if carried into execution, will be attended with like results.

Mr. Beman was at one time a very clever member of the Amateur Theatrical Company that played in Odd Fellows' Hall. He was especially good in delineation of German comic characters. On the occasion of several entertainments for charitable purposes, Mr. Beman gave, in a masterly manner, recitations and delineations. He contributed some very well written sketches for Memphis papers, and had a good reputation as a book keeper, accountant and salesman.

City Pound.

Be it ordained by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Memphis:

SECTION 1. That from and after the passage of this ordinance it shall be unlawful for the owners of dogs, hogs, goats or stock of any kind, (except milch cows) to allow them to run at large throughout the city.

Sec. 2. The Board of Mayor and Aldermen shall elect a pound keeper every year, or as often as may be necessary, whose duty it shall be to establish a pound within the corporate limits of the city, in which he may impound all stock found running at large throughout the city.

Sec. 3. Said pound keeper may charge not exceeding fifty cents a head per day for dogs, goats and hogs, and not exceeding seventy-five cents a head per day, if called for by the owner, for all other stock impounded, as a remuneration for his services in establishing and keeping up said pound, and shall feed and take proper care of all animals in said pound.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the pound keeper to keep a book in which he shall enter a description and kind of each animal taken up and enclosed in said pound, the precise time of the day said animals are enclosed; and a list of the description and kind of all animals in said pound, and the time they were placed therein, shall be posted up at each pound station every twelve hours. Said book shall at all times be open for the inspection of the Mayor and any member of the Board of Aldermen and Police Commissioners.

Sec. 5. All persons who may have stock or any animal in said pound may, on proving it to be their property, and paying the charges, take them away, and the pound keeper shall take the name and residence of every person to whom stock of any kind is delivered, the description of the animal or animals, the time when taken away, and the amount paid by them to the keeper for keeping said animal or animals so taken.

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the City Scavenger to destroy all dogs not reclaimed in five days after having been inclosed in said pound, and all other animals not reclaimed in ten days may be sold for the benefit of the city.

Sec. 7. Said pound keeper shall enter into bonds in the sum of five thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duties.

Sec. 8. All ordinances or parts of ordinances coming in conflict with any of the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Approved June 6, 1867.
W. O. LOFLAND, Mayor.

Paving Streets.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the city of Memphis:

SECTION 1. That there shall be issued City Bonds with interest coupons attached, to the amount of $500,000 for the purpose of paving the streets and alleys of the city, and which shall be denominated "Paving Bonds."

Sec. 2. A board of three Trustees shall be appointed by the Mayor, with the advice and consent of the Board of Aldermen, to be called the "Bond Trustees," and who shall be appointed to serve until January, 1869, 1870 and 1871; the term of service of each to be determined by lot, and they shall be eligible to re-election.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of said Board of Trustees to receive such portion of the revenue of the city as shall be paid them by the City Treasurer, and to disburse the same in the following manner: 1st. To pay the interest on the bonds herein provided to be issued, as the same becomes due. 2d. To invest any balance on hand in the bonds themselves at their market value, and to return the bonds and coupons thus retired to the City Controller, who shall cancel the same.

Sec. 4. The City Treasurer shall pay over weekly to said Bond Trustees one sixth of his receipts from revenue, beginning on the second Tuesday in January, 1868, and continuing until the sum of $—— shall have been paid.

Sec. 5. Said Trustees shall each enter into bond in the penal sum of $—— for the faithful discharge of the duties prescribed in this ordinance, and shall receive for compensation such salary as shall be allowed by the Board of Aldermen.

Sec. 6. At least five days after the final passage of this ordinance the Mayor shall, by proclamation, order an election to test the sense of the qualified voters of the city of Memphis as to the issuance of the amount of paving bonds provided for by this ordinance in accordance with the provisions of the city charter.

Passed May 21, and approved June 1, 1867.
W. O. LOFLAND, Mayor.

The pen is mightier than the sword.

WEDNESDAY, : : : : : : : : : JULY 3, 1867

THE great Conservative heart of Tennessee is fired anew with the love of liberty, and the people are arousing like the giant after his sleep. They have erected their heads, and are determined to renew the battle with despotism. The ball was put in motion in this city on Monday night, in the First ward, by the holding of a large and enthusiastic meeting, at which the work of thorough and efficient organization was begun. The proceedings, which we published yesterday, show that the meeting was ably addressed by Alderman T. O. SMITH, a rising young man of this city. Ex-Mayor R. D. BAUGH, with all the earnestness of his honest heart and detestation for usurpation, urged the necessity of every man doing his duty. Hon. S. P. WALKER—always first and foremost in everything that has for its object the promotion of the public good—made a vigorous effort—a speech full of earnest feeling, and which elicited much applause. Judge SWANN, an old citizen of Tennessee, recently located in our midst, was loudly called upon for a speech. In response he made a few pointed and appropriate remarks, placing his destiny with that of the Conservative party, who are proud of the sympathy and services of so valued and valuable a champion. That honest citizen, and sturdy gentleman, Alderman O'DONNELL, who carries his heart in his hand, and his principles upon his sleeve, made, perhaps, the most telling speech of the occasion. He showed that his Irish countrymen, for hundreds of years, had opposed despotism, and it was natural for a race of men who had imbibed their sentiments from their mother's bosom, to oppose BROWNLOW's tyranny. The importance of the issues involved called forth GREEN P. FOUTE, Esq., a gentleman who does not often participate in political meetings. He spoke strongly in favor of the object of the meeting. We trust his talent and his great popularity will be given to the Conservative cause from this time until the election. The speech of Mr. McCARTY was short but telling, and shows that he has talent and capacity for a good speaker which we hope will be cultivated by pleading for the Conservative cause. The club was organized by appointing P. M. WINTERS, President, and if the other portions of the city will do as good service as the First ward, Radicalism will soon be swept from the city of Memphis. The meeting last night at Exchange building, to organize a Conservative club, was largely attended, but did not organize because of the session in the hall of the Board of Aldermen until a late hour. The meeting will be held to-night at Exchange building. These demonstrations argue well for the success of the Conservative cause. This enthusiasm does not emanate from spoils seeking and mercenary demagogues, but it grows out of the deepest and most permanent emotions in the hearts of patriotic men. Our State Government has been perverted to the defeat of the will of the tax paying people, and to the aggrandizement of an oligarchy of unscrupulous politicians. Such oppression has produced a feeling of disquiet and discontent throughout the country. The people are writhing and groaning as under the heel of usurpation. There is a feeling of revolt against the infamous dynasty which has passed despotic laws to perpetuate their power, in defiance of the manifest will of the popular masses. Never were the Conservative party engaged in a nobler or more momentous cause. It is a hallowed work, which should command the cordial and active sympathy of every patriot. Let the good work of organization go on! The First and Second wards have set a noble example. Let it be imitated by other wards and other districts until the party throughout the State shall present a united and consolidated phalanx ready to work, and to overthrow the infamous dynasty which now has its heel upon the neck of the people. Let the press, always the foremost power in a political contest, display more vigilance and energy. Let our speakers meet the enemy upon every stump, and expose the corruptions of Radicalism, and the despotic laws they have enacted to perpetuate their illgotten power. Let a heartfelt enthusiasm pervade our ranks—an enthusiasm which is kindled, not by a desire to oppress and insult our neighbors with unjust laws, but which springs from the noblest source of inspiration—attachment for the Constitution, a desire to promote peace by laws of equality and justice; an enthusiasm which will not evaporate in idle vaunt or impotent exertion, but an enthusiasm that will emblazon on our banner a splendid victory.

MAYNARD delivered his wordy, jejune speech at Jackson on Monday last. As usual, he "drew out the thread of his verbosity finer than the staple of his argument." He advocated the election of BROWNLOW, who once denounced him, (MAYNARD) as an unprincipled scoundrel, and defeated his election to Congress. MAYNARD was followed by that noted, pedantic ignoramus and lisping mass of garrulity, BARBOUR LEWIS, who never opens his mouth without showing himself an ass. These brave champions, refused to divide time with Colonel C. S. CAMERON, of this city. They bored a Conservative crowd for nearly five hours, without striking oil. They intended to speak until dark, in order to prevent a reply; but about six o'clock they succeeded in emptying themselves of their harmless gasconade, when loud and enthusiastic calls were made upon Colonel CAMERON. Our gallant champion responded, and for over an hour he enchained and thrilled the audience with a most eloquent and powerful speech. He proved, from documents undeniable and incontestible, that MAYNARD had uttered willful and deliberate falsehoods. MAYNARD repeated the stale slander about Mr. JEFFERSON DAVIS endeavoring to escape in petticoats. Colonel CAMERON told him that it was a lie, and that he, MAYNARD, was a liar for repeating it. This, from a gallant ex-officer in the Federal army, was so overwhelming that MAYNARD caved. The speech of Colonel CAMERON was loudly applauded, and inspired much enthusiasm in our party. All accounts concur in representing the services of this gentleman in the present canvass as of the most distinguished character. No man in the State of his adoption has, during the last two years, exhibited superior powers of argumentative eloquence or a greater amount of accurate political information. Colonel CAMERON is making many valuable friends, and fast wining for himself an enviable reputation as a man of talent and an able speaker. At the earnest request of the Conservative party, Colonel CAMERON will meet Mr. FLETCHER in all his appointments in West Tennessee.

ON our first page will be found an interesting letter, written by the special correspondent of the New York Times, giving an account of an interview he held with BROWNLOW at his home in Knoxville, and his own view of politics in Tennessee, derived from what would seem to be a critical personal observation of affairs in this State. There is much of significance in what this correspondent writes—sufficient to convince every reader that he knows what he is writing about, and that he is thoroughly posted as to the motives which govern the Radical leaders of Tennessee and their chief, who is now fretting out a miserable existence at Knoxville. A Radical himself, writing for a leading organ of what claims to be a more conservative portion of the Radical party, his expose can not be subjected to the imputation of interested perversion, nor to anything but a pressure of the real condition of affairs upon him, which compels a distasteful exposition of what he believes to be the truth. What we publish of it is sufficiently interesting to exact the reader's perusal. We particularly desire to call attention to the evasion of BROWNLOW to answer a question which he propounded as to his absolute action and unexplained reason for abolishing the registration in a large number of counties. His relation of the purpose of the Radical party, as confessed to him by certain leaders, to carry the coming election at all hazards, even to the extent of blood, taken in connection with his view of the design of the loyal militia, must be conclusive to every one, of the cowardly and fiendish desperation of the radical revolutionary faction. But we tell BROWNLOW and his gang of degraded camp followers, "pioneers and all," that the honest voters of this State are not to be deterred by him, or his braggart proclamations; by his loyal militia or their blustering General; by his Metropolitan Police, nor any other of the villainous appliances of his wretched despotism, which may serve to frighten the timid, but do not alarm the true man.

Five cars were thrown from the track on the Nashville and Chattanooga railroads. Thursday, between Chattanooga and Bridgeport, and smashed to pieces. Nobody hurt.

By reference to late Mexican news on our outside it will be seen that the capture of Santa Anna at Sisal is confirmed, and that at last accounts he was in danger of being executed.

We are indebted to the Hon. John W. Leftwich for a number of interesting public documents. He will accept many thanks for his courteous treatment.

We regret to learn from Neal's Gazette that little Tommy Woods, son of Mrs. Steve Woods, was drowned while bathing near Dyersburg, Sunday week.

We learn from the Bolivar Bulletin of Saturday, that a negro named Charley Miller, employed at the Bolivar steam saw mills threw a plank which struck another freedman named Andrew Jackson. The latter procured a pistol, and shot Miller through the body. Jackson escaped and Miller is recovering.

Neal's Gazette of the 29th referring to the discussion between Messrs Hawkins and Caldwell at Dyersburg last Wednesday, says: "The crowd at no time consisted of more than 120 persons, and not a single breath of enthusiasm broke the stillness of the hour, notwithstanding both of the above gentlemen are able speakers. But our people, of all classes, want peace and quietude, and exemption from politics, until a return of reason and justice allows every citizen the God given right to vote.

ADVENTURES OF AN ALABAMA SHARPER.

He Hires a Horse in Nashville, Sells it at Lebanon, and is Nabbed in Chattanooga.

From the Union and Dispatch.]

A country merchant in Nashville now-a-days, when business is so slack, and the long, dull, hot days are inviting no one to come to the city, either for barter or pleasure, is an object of regard. His name is sought on the registers at the hotels, and he has scarcely brushed the dust of travel off before he is besieged with urgent invitations to "call upon us at our store, and look at our goods; we're confident we can fill your bill more satisfactorily every way than any other house in the city."

A few days since, it leaked out in commercial circles that a Mr. Morse, who was said to be the "Son" in the firm of Morse & Son, Tuscumbia, Alabama, had found his way to Nashville, and it was whispered that he had ideas of investing largely and replenishing his depleted stock at some of the wholesale houses in this city. Of course Mr. Morse was at once singled out from the crowd at the hotel, and was soon on the street, the chaps in the store doors throwing envious eyes upon him and his companions as they passed along.

Before he left town, he had bought dry goods, boots and shoes at Evans, Fite & Co.'s, dry goods at Gardner, Buckner & Co.'s, hardware at Gray & Kirkman's, groceries at Sperry, Sawrie & Co.'s, and drugs at the house of Ewin, Pendleton & Co. And he paid for them. But he had gone too far—had bought too many goods, and his surplus funds were completely exhausted.

He found it necessary to visit Lebanon before leaving the State, and to this end he proceeded to the livery stable at Ed. Goff, a colored man, and hired a conveyance with which he set off. By the time he arrived at Lebanon, his greenbacks had grown still more beautifully less, and he was not long in deciding upon the means of making a raise. He suddenly discovered that the horse and buggy were cumbersome, and that the railroads were furnishing ample accommodations for the traveling public. Going to R. C. Bone & Co., he closed a bargain with them, selling the "rig" at a good figure, and referring them to Ewing, Pendleton & Co., of Nashville. Bone & Co., however, like most business men in such cases, were disposed to inquire further, and a letter to the firm to which Morse referred, was quickly dispatched, though not until he had left the place. As soon as the letter arrived, Ed. Goff, who had been making inquiries in regard to the property which he had temporarily leased to the oily Alabamian, was notified of the sale at Lebanon, and at once set to work to secure the capture of the delinquent, though little hope of success was entertained.

As good fortune would have it, however, Mr. James Buckner, of the firm of Gardner, Buckner & Co., happened to start at once for Chattanooga on business, and there discovered Moore, who was on his way home. He lost not a moment in notifying the police, and the representative of Moore & Son was soon in vile durance, awaiting the arrival of a colored man from Ed. Goff's livery stable, in this city, to be identified, preparatory to his introduction to a court room.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, July 2.

Mr. Beckwith, the American Commissioner, has been made an officer of the Legion of Honor.

The arrangements for the distribution of prizes at the Great Exposition, yesterday, were probably the most magnificent ever witnessed; 17,000 persons, representing all the nations of the earth, were present, dressed in national costumes. The orchestra numbered 1,200 musicians, accompanied by organs and musical bells.

After the Emperor's speech the exhibitors stepped in front of the throne and received the medals, etc., from his hand. Altogether there will be 18,500 recompenses to 6,000 exhibitors.

The Emperor of Russia was awarded a gold medal for fine horses, and Napoleon was awarded another for a model lodging house. The only inventor that the Emperor shook hands with was Mr. Hughes, of Kentucky, the inventor of the printing telegraph.

LONDON, July 2.

In the redistribution of Parliamentary seats, the Government concedes one additional member each to Liverpool, Birmingham and Leeds.

LONDON, July 2—Evening.

Consols closed at 94⅛; Five Twenties, 72¾; Illinois Central, 79½; Erie, 43¼.

LIVERPOOL, July 2—Evening.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2.

A Galveston dispatch says a Monterey letter, written previous to the execution, says that Emperor Maximilian was stripped entirely naked, and Escobedo presented him with a suit to cover his nakedness.

The following particulars of Maximilian's execution have been received. His trial and that of Mejia and Miramon, ended on the 14th, and they were to have been executed on the 16th, but Juarez suspended the execution until the 19th, when they were shot at 11 a.m. The Colonels are sentenced to a term of six years' imprisonment; the Lieutenant Colonels to five years, and the minor officers for two. The Brigadiers and exceptional officers are to be tried by court martial.

The City of Mexico surrrendered to Diaz on the 21st. Juarez sent him a congratulatory note, with directions for the disposition of the prisoners, saying: "The native prisoners you will transfer to your own command, or put at liberty, according to circumstances. The foreign prisoners you will retain for further disposition by the government."

Among the archives taken at Queretaro were some documents relative to the last will of Maximilian, wherein, in case of his death, Theodosia Lopez, Jose Maria Lacunya, and Marquez, the assassin of Tacubaya, are declared Regents.

Escobedo writes from Queretaro: "I have, by the execution of these master traitors, made terror the order of the day. Everywhere I have imposed large contributions on the rich, I have confiscated their property, and their all. Where I could not do it in person, my delegates have strictly complied with my orders, and I hope, before closing my military career, to see the blood of every foreigner spilt that resides in my country."

There is a report that Maximilian was shot in front, and the Mexican Generals in the back as traitors.

Both the Liberal and Imperial papers of Brownsville condemn the execution. The Ranchero is in full mourning. Bernabel, Governor of Matamoras, had the bells rung and rockets fired on the reception of the news, and sent official information to General Reynolds.

In consequence of the prevalence of yellow fever in Indianola, all communication has been cut off between there and Galveston, also with Brazos Santiago, and a quarantine established.

CANADA.

OTTOWA, C. E., July 2.

After being sworn yesterday as Viceroy of the Dominion of Canada, Lord Monck announced that the Queen had conferred on the Hon. J. A. McDonald the order K. C. B., and Mr. Hewland McDougal, Certier tilleries tupes, Companion of the Bath. His inauguration took place in the Council Chamber, about fifty persons being present. Sir J. A. McDonald has formed a Privy Council, which has been sworn it. It is understood to be constituted as announced some time since.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 2.

In the Surratt trial to-day, McMillan was recalled, and testified that Surratt told him he was in Montreal on the first day of the week of the assassination, and was summoned to Washington by Booth, through a letter. Surratt also told him that a day or two after the assassination he was at St. Albans, and the train being late, started through the town and went to the hotel for breakfast, and while sitting at the table saw a good deal of excitement among those near him, and asked the next person what it was about, who said: "Don't you know Lincoln is assassinated?" The prisoner said the story was too good to be true.

McMillan was cross examined by Mr. Merrick at length, and said he did not remember any date except on two occasions, when he said he was in Richmond a week. He never said he was in Washington the day of the assassination. Lieutenant Main was then called and testified a few minutes. His testimony will be continued to-morrow.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 2.

An Ottawa special says Lord Monck will remain at the head of the Government for twelve months only, and will be succeeded by the Duke of Buckingham.

LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE, July 2.

The river is stationary, with scant five feet in the canal. Thermometer, 94°.

At the Tobacco Fair, 600 hogsheads were offered. The first premium manufacturing leaf was awarded to Hart county, and sold at $210 per hundred pounds. The second premium sold for $95, and the third premium at $55. The first premium for cutting leaf was awarded to Owen county, and sold at $80. All these were bona fide sales.

The Buntyn
HOMESTEAD LANDS
FOR SALE.

WE have the pleasure of placing on the market these very desirable and valuable lands, so well known to the community as the Homestead Tract of the late Geraldus Buntyn, Esq., situated at the first station on the Memphis and Charleston railroad, five miles east of the city. The improvements, with about twenty acres of land, have been recently sold to Hume F. Hill, Esq., who now resides upon the premises. The balance of the tract, consisting of about 400 acres, has been laid off in lots varying in size from five to ten acres, fronting upon broad avenues, and laid off so as to secure the greatest amount of comfort. The trains of the Memphis and Charleston railroad afford the opportunity of going in and out of the city, from and to Buntyn's Station, four times a day, so as to make a residence at this point almost as convenient as to live in the city itself.

The choice can now be had of lots wholly or part in original forest, or in field.

IN EXCHANGE FOR CITY PROPERTY.

The executors are directed by the will to sell this place and invest in city property, and we will receive propositions to exchange for either improved or vacant lots in the city.

To all parties looking for a suburban residence, we do not think any property more desirable can be found, in regard to health, convenience or good neighborhood, within the same distance from the city.

The terms will be made very liberal and easy, and the prices low to parties desirous of buying for occupation.

Plans of the subdivision will be shown at our office.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Rockbridge Alum Springs,
VIRGINIA.

THIS favorite and delightful watering place will be open JUNE FIRST. Arrangements are making to render it more than ever attractive to all in quest of recreation, while to the invalid its remarkable medicinal waters hold out new hopes of health.

Its reputation is established as a cure for SCROFULA and most of the Glandular and Cutaneous affections, CHRONIC DIARRHEA and DYSENTERY, DYSPEPSIA, BRONCHITIS, THRUSH, Affections of Kidneys and Bladder, DROPSY and PILES. In all anaemic conditions of the system and broken down states of the constitution, Loss of Appetite and general Nervous Prostration, their powers and virtues as a Restorative are without a known rival among the mineral waters of the world. They are especially indicated in the ailments peculiar to the female constitution.

The Springs are distant only eleven hours from Richmond and twelve hours from Washington by rail; in the midst of the grand mountain ranges of Virginia; in the same county with the famous "Natural Bridge," (from which it takes its name,) and near to Lexington, Washington College, and the Military Institute; the home of LEE, and the tomb of JACKSON.

For all particulars of routes, location and properties of the water, see Springs' pamphlet, sent free by mail.

The bottled water and the salts of the water (or "mass,") can at all times be had fresh and genuine from Hegeman & Co., New York; Coleman & Rogers, Baltimore; Purcell, Ladd & Co., Richmond, and A. B. Rucker, Lynchburg, Va.

A superior BAND OF MUSIC for both lawn and ball-room in attendance during the season.

SECOND DRAWING
OF THE
SOUTHERN ASYLUM LAND CO.
TO BE HELD
AT HERNANDO, MISS, AUGUST, 1867

THE FIRST DRAWING, which took place at Hernando Miss., on the 15th instant, was attended with unusual success, when it is remembered that but a few weeks elapsed from the inception of the enterprise to that event. Seventeen thousand dollars worth of tickets having been sold, a like amount of property was drawn for, under the supervision of gentlemen selected by the ticket holders present. The utmost harmony and good feeling pervaded those present, and, as will be seen from the subjoined certificate of the managers, the affair was conducted to a close in a most gratifying and satisfactory manner:

HERNANDO, MISS., June 15, 1867.

We hereby certify, that the above report of the first drawing of the Southern Asylum is correct, and that the proceedings were characterized by a spirit of fairness and justness unsurpassed by any drawing of which we have any knowledge. The managers of the Company placed the tickets and wheels under our sole management and control.
(Signed)
J. B. MORGAN,
W. W. CAMPTON,
ROBERT TEMPLE,
M. MAGEVENY,
V. A. MERRIWETHER,
JOHN AINSLIE.
J. M. HALL, Clerk. Committee.

The prizes drawn on this occasion numbered forty-seven, and comprised lots in the vicinity of Memphis, Tenn., Corinth, Miss., and Hernando, Miss., deeds to which have been made to the lucky ticket holders. For this, the Second Drawing, however, we are able to offer our patrons still more attractive inducements to interest themselves in our scheme. From a lengthy list of property, much of which has already been advertised to the public, we select the following as our

LIST OF PRIZES

FIRST AND CAPITAL PRIZE.

TO THE COUNTRY PRESS.—The proprietors of the AVALANCHE are prepared to furnish a fine quality of printing ink, black and colored, at Eastern prices, for CASH. In ordering, let the kind of press used be stated. tf

Cumberland University, Lebanon Tennessee now has eleven Professors; among them Lieutenant General A. P. Stewart, A. M. and J. M. Safford, L. L. D. Next session opens the first Monday in September. For catalogues address B. W. McDonnold, D. D. President. tf.

Ed Worsham, 22 Jefferson street, received by last night's mail, Harper's Weekly, Waverly, Wilkes spirit of the Times, La Crosse Democrat, Appleton's Railroad Guide; also Peterson's magazine for August.

NO HUMBUG.—We are determined to sell our stock of summer dry goods at Eastern cost for the next thirty days.
3t HOWELL, WOOD & Co., 332 Main street.

LIVE INDEPENDANT, SAVE YOUR MONEY, AND KEEP COOL.—Secure furnished rooms at Southern Hotel, on Europeon plan, and meals from Schwoob's restaurant, attached, at reduced rates. 3t

The rush for the cheap, damaged goods is as great as in the start, hence the conclusion that M. Kraus, No. 213 Main street, near Ward & LeGuere's drug store, must sell their dry goods, clothing, etc., very cheap. tf

REWARD.—A liberal reward will be paid to any one finding the body of a boy nine years old, son of Frank Murphy, drowned at the mouth of Wolf river, on the 28th of June, by applying to Richard Brannan, steward of the steamer Gleaner. 10t

GERMAN PICNIC FOURTH OF JULY.—A free picnic, with dancing and music, will be given at Mr. Heinrich's, on the extension of Vance, at the junction with the Pigeon Roost road on the 4th of July. This will be a splendid opportunity to enjoy the 4th. The Beale street cars run to within a short distance of the garden. 2t

Come, all you economical housewives and get some of the cheap, damaged goods, before they are all gone. M. Kraus & Co., No. 213 Main street, next to Ward & LeGuere's drug store, have still a few on hand, and must close them out in thirty days.

Don't miss the rare chance to buy cheap, at M. Kraus & Co.'s, No. 213 Main street, next to Ward & LeGuere's, will sell their goods, damaged by the late fire, regardless of price and value, in quantities to suit purchasers. Country merchants, planters and citizens, don't forget.

FRIENDLY SONS OF ST. PATRICK.—The regular monthly meeting of this society will be held this evening, in their Hall in Odd Fellows' building, at eight o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

Just received, the finest lot of hoops, at forty-five cents, worth two dollars, at Lindauer & Pollock's, 299 Main street.

Gentlemen who want to buy cloth, cassimeres, ready made clothing, shirts, drawers, neckties, &c., to find a full and complete stock of furnishing goods, will do well to attend the closing sale of damaged goods at M. Kraus & Co.'s, 213 Main street, next to Ward & LeGuere's drug store.

Dolbear's Commercial College, 280 Main street, open day and night. No vacation. New pupils can begin any day.

If you wish to find a stock that is well selected and at panic prices, call at Lindauer & Pollock's, 299 Main street.

SECOND DRAWING.—The first drawing of the Southern Asylum at Hernando demonstrates the practicability of the plan of disposing of lands by the Southern Asylum. But the amount of property was deeply reduced; this was owing to the tightness of the money market, the brief time allowed for selling tickets, and the insufficiency of agencies throughout the country. All these defects are now being remedied, and, in addition, an absolute scheme of splendid prizes is offered, which must attract the attention of the public and invite investments. The first prize is the magnificent property of Colonel M. C. Galloway, on the corner of Court and Third streets, in the very heart of the city. The fortunate drawer of this prize will at once secure a handsome fortune by the investment of a small sum, which is well worth the hazard, especially when his chances are still further enhanced by nine other attractive prizes. 1w

MEMPHIS MECHANICAL AND AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.

Organization for Coming Turf Meeting.

At a meeting of the incorporators of the "Memphis Mechanical and Agricultural Association," Hon. W. W. Coleman was called to the chair, and P. M. Dickinson appointed secretary pro tem; whereupon an election of officers under the charter was held, and the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year:

President—Lieutenant General N B Forrest.
First Vice President—F G McGavock.
Second Vice President—D Cockrell.
Third Vice President—Jno Donovan.
Secretary—J H Edmondson.
Treasurer—J W Megibben.

DIRECTORS.

Dan Able,	W W Coleman,
J J Worsham,	J E Montgomery,
W B Tremaine,	J K P Pritchard,
C H Brackett,	H A Montgomery,
M C Costillo,	J Odell.

The Association being duly organized, the President took the chair, when, on motion, the following committee were appointed on by laws: John Donovan, M. C. Costillo, M. S. Tremaine, J. K. P. Pritchard and Dan. Able.

On motion, the following names were appointed a committee to confer with Mr. J. W. Megibben relative to the track: F. G. McGavock, D. Cockrell and Joe Odell.

On motion, the following committee were appointed to report purses for the next fall meeting: J. K. P. Pritchard, C. H. Brackett and W. S. Tremaine.

It was moved by Mr. McGavock that the Treasurer be instructed to open the books of the company for the subscription of additional stock; and that he advertise the same in the daily papers. Motion carried.

On motion, it was ordered that the organization and proceedings of this meeting be published in the daily papers.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to meet at the Gayoso House on the third instant at eight o'clock p.m., to receive the report of the committee to confer with Mr. Megibben relative to the track.

J. H. EDMONDSON, Secretary.

ATTENTION, SECOND WARD.

Conservative Meeting To-night.

The meeting to organize a Second Ward Conservative Club, which was to have been held last night, was postponed until to-night because of the late session of the Board of Aldermen in the Hall. It will meet at eight o'clock to-night in Exchange Building. Eloquent speakers will be in attendance.

Book Notice.

NOT A HERO; A Novel, by Mrs. ELIZA LAFTON PUGH, of Louisiana. New York: Blelock & Co. 1867. On sale at Blelock's, No. 318 Main street, and Geo. Pattison & Co.'s, No. 35 North Court street.

This is the initial number of a series of select novels by Southern authors, the publication of which has been commenced by this enterprising firm, having so many warm and irrepressible sympathies with the South. Although there are repeated evidences of carelessness, if not hurry, in the fair author, such as repetition strongly resembling tautology, the book is exceedingly well written, and is full of pathos and power. It is purely psychological, and rarely reflects the truly poetical and graphic power of the writer in elaborate description of natural objects, but deals almost exclusively with the mysteries of the heart, and the influences that direct and sway it. The plot is by no mens intricate, and requires no great stretch of imagination to conceive is vraisemblableness. The scene is laid in New Orleans, and its environs, which are well, though not minutely described. There seems a defect in the protracted absence of the penitential mother, when the source of her misery had departed, and her idolized but wayward child was left to battle with life alone. It may have been necessary to the full development of the plot, however, and her timely appearance on the scene prevented a worse catastrophe than might have been wrought, and made the daughter's career the more closely resemble her own, springing as it did from the same selfish, if not heartless cause. The characters are well sustained in their individuality, and in every respect the book is worthy to lead off in such an interesting series, which, followed by others of equal excellence, will be highly creditable to Southern literature. The view taken of the strange perversity of woman's heart is singularly truthful, although for the most part the world is seldom permitted to raise the veil, and error seldom pauses on the right side of shame.

In consequence of the great rush at Lindauer & Pollock's, 299 Main street, they have concluded, from Monday, July 1st, to offer their entire stock at prices lower than at any place in the city.

FOURTH OF JULY AMUSEMENTS.—By reference to our advertisements it will be seen that a place of amusement will be opened on the corner of Third and Adams streets, in Joyce's lot, where a great variety of performances will be produced for the entertainment of those in search of amusement on the great holiday. Mr. Frank Donaldson, and little Angelo will perform their wonderful feats, in which they are truly great. None excel them in rapidity, precision and aplomb. Twenty performers are engaged to present favorite selections in singing, dancing and farces. The touching interlude of "that mischievous monkey," will be introduced. There will be races in sacks, and blindfolded, with wheelbarrows, the contestants blindfolded. A number of balloons will be sent up. Greased poles will be climbed for prizes. In such a variety there will be a vast fund of amusement. In the evening there will be a grand display of fireworks.

Call early at Lindauer & Pollock's, 299 Main street, and get your choice of every variety of goods at our cheap table.

STEAMBOAT EXCURSION.—It will be seen that the fine steamer J. D. Perry has been chartered for the Fourth of July, and will make three trips during the day to the beautiful groves of Island 40, for the benefit of those who desire to join in the great basket picnic there. There will be a moonlight excursion in the evening, for the benefit of those who may prefer it, with music and dancing on board. All sorts of refreshments will be provided on the boat, of the best quality. The best order will be preserved, and nothing boisterous or unpleasant be allowed. Those who have been confined in the city will find this to be the most agreeable mode offered of celebrating what was once the national holiday.

HO! FOR ST. PAUL.—By our advertisements it will be seen that arrangements have been perfected by which the splendid line of packets of the Memphis and St. Louis Packet Company will connect at St. Louis with the packets of the Northern Line Company, plying between that city and St. Paul, and avoiding the possibility of detention. The accommodations of the whole route are superior, and some of the most magnificent scenery on the continent is traversed. St. Paul can be reached by boat in five days from this city, by far the most agreeable mode of traveling. Full information, as well as excursion tickets, can be obtained of our young friend Jimmy Speed, the courteous agent, at No. 5 Jefferson street. We may say en passant, that money can be saved by excursionists by purchasing their return ticket before starting.

THE GRAVEST MALADIES OF YOUTH AND EARLY MANHOOD.—Howard Association Essays, on the physiology of the passions, and the errors, abuses and diseases peculiar to the first age of man, with reports on new methods of treatment employed in this Institution. Sent in sealed letter envelopes, free of charge. Address Dr. J. Skillin Houghton, Howard Association, Philadelphia Pa. 3m

HOWELL, WOOD & CO.—Are selling their stock of dry goods at Eastern cost—no humbug. Southern Palace, 332 Main street. 3t

The locomotive that met, some time ago, with such a serious accident at Lagrange, has been put in thorough repair, and is now one of the finest engines on the Memphis and Charleston railroad.

Where do you find such beautiful dress goods at? Why, don't you know? At Lindauer & Pollock's, 299 Main street, at only twenty-five cents per yard.

Emmons & Son, No. 10 Jefferson street, have received the Waverley magazine, Wilkes' Spirit, Albion, Citizen, Beadle's dime novels, Blackwood's Magazine for June, American Agriculturist, for July, and Railroad Guide for July, and St. Louis, Cincinnati, Chicago, New York, New Orleans papers, all late.

Fans, fans, fans, every variety, from five cents to ten dollars, at Lindauer & Pollock's 299 Main street.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK.—This popular institution has just made its twelfth quarterly report, and as usual presents a full and very gratifying resume of its resources and liabilities. Its president and cashier are gentlemen who have had a great deal of experience in banking, and are popular with all classes of our citizens. No stockholders in any bank in Memphis have realized such profits on their investments as have those of the First National, and the investment of its depositors has only one rival institution in Memphis.

TONSORIAL.—Nicholas Alexander, No. 15½ West Court street, offers his services to the public. He has a corps of excellent shavers, hair dressers and cutters, uses the best soaps, oils and Cologne, and always keeps on hand a large stock of clean towels. He solicits the patronage of all who want a clean, nice shave, and we can recommend him. wed&sat

The officers and members of Division No. 60, Sons of Temperance, will meet at their hall, on the corner of Court and Main streets, at two o'clock to-day, for the purpose of paying the last tribute of respect to our deceased brother, S. F. Fleming. Members of sister Divisions are respectfully invited. By order of the Committee.
D. H. CHAPMAN,
W. M. CHAMBERS,

The secret why Lindauer & Pollock, 299 Main street, are selling so many fine dress goods, is that they are selling them for the same price that you have to pay for common goods at other places.

Official Drawing of the Missouri State Lottery.

ITEMIZAS.

Regular meeting of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick to-night.

John Gilmore is to swim the Mississippi on a fifty dollar wager.

The County Court met yesterday, and then at once adjourned over for a week.

The criminal side of the Municipal Court closed the June term last evening.

Henry Davis was arrested for stealing $105 from John Carmelcok, and John Daily for stealing $70 worth of clothes from Mr. Blood.

The merchants of Memphis see very little improvement in business, but the prospect is good. Crops are causing some animation and hope.

It is said that Mr. Tomeny will remain in Washington until he has secured the appointment of Channing Richards, Esq., as Register of Bankruptcies.

The session of the Board of Aldermen continued until so late an hour last night, that the meeting to form a Second Ward Etheridge Club, was postponed.

It is probable that the gas works of the new gas company will be located near Fort Pickering, as the managers were prospecting yesterday, and have found a place that is well suited.

Thomas Cunningham, the Memphian who was caught at Bolivar stealing money from a gentleman who roomed with him in a hotel, has been sent to prison for one year.

The parents of two boys named Frank T. Miller and David R. Collins, who left Newark, New Jersey, on June 19th, with the foolish notion of seeking their fortunes, have issued a circular imploring Christian people who chance to meet the boys to care for them. They are nearly sixteen years of age, and boys who have been well raised.

A female shoplifter was arrested yesterday at Lindauer & Pollock's. She was being waited on by a clerk, but called his attention to something on a shelf, and when she supposed he was not looking, she slipped a piece of dress goods into a slit in front of her skirt. She was a very neatly dressed and apparently respectable woman.

It is said that Wiggins, the great gift enterprise swindler, who left Chicago with two hundred thousand dollars, and was shaken out of twenty-five thousand dollars by the police detectives in this city, who pretended to have a warrant for him but let him go, has since lost every dollar of it at faro banks in New Orleans.

BEAUMONT IN LUCK.—Some time ago it came out that a stranger had been robbed of a large amount of money, in Beaumont's private office, by one or more of his detectives. There were circumstances which seemed to implicate Beaumont, but no action was taken against him until the other guilty parties were caught, and they at once left Memphis for parts unknown with their booty. It was after a time discovered that one of the eloping detectives was in Shreveport, and, as the victim had procured the services of a Chicago officer, named Bell, to work up the case, requisition was obtained from Governor Brownlow, and Bell went after the man that was wanted. In due season he found the detective, and started for Memphis with him as a prisoner. When forty or fifty miles from Memphis he was induced to get off the cars with the prisoner, and take off his irons. About this time the prisoner got away, and has not been seen since. Bell, who acted either the part of a fool or a knave, came to Memphis, reported the escape, and then went back, as he said, to look after the runaway, but finally he gave it up and has gone to Chicago. But for this escape, Beaumont would certainly have been arrested as an accomplice in the robbery. As it is, there is not much likelihood of anything being done about the matter.

Receipts of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad for Yesterday, July 2.

THE MERCHANTS' NATIONAL BANK.—There is probably no National Bank, or any other, in Memphis, that can give as satisfactory a showing of resources and liabilities as the Merchants' National Bank, under the management of that sagacious yet courteous gentleman, Mr. Cherry. It is an institution that has a purely business character, and keeping aloof from all political or other excitements, it has been exceedingly liberal in its accommodations to reliable business men, yet seems to have met with fewer losses than any bank in the city. It has a larger capital stock than any bank in the city, and it has had at all times the unlimited confidence of depositors. When, some months ago, there were symptoms of public distrust of most moneyed institutions, not a shadow passed over the Merchants' National, and its return of notes and bills discounted, gives evidence of genuine prosperity and usefulness. That it may long enjoy its high reputation, is the wish of the whole business community.

CHANCERY COURT.—The following orders and decrees were entered yesterday:

Harbert vs. Finnie; exceptions sustained.
Dow vs. Mayor and Aldermen of Memphis; injunction made perpetual.
Dimmick et al. vs. Hurlbert; receiver appointed.
Kerr, executrix, vs. Carroll et al.; order to Clerk and Master, etcetera.
Lonsdale vs. Potter et al.; decree vesting title.
Ruffin vs. Guise; motion to dismiss overruled.
Peplow vs. Sides; order of reference, etc.
Woods vs. McLean; decree for sale.
Humes vs. Roundtree; decree confirming sale.
Jewell vs. Folyer; decree for sale.
Prouditt, executrix, vs. Picket et al.; decree final.
Blessing vs. Bullock et al.; decree for sale, etc.

Court adjourned to Friday, the 5th inst., which will be motion day.

CRIMINAL COURT.—Stands adjourned until Friday, the 5th inst.

WORTH SPECIAL ATTENTION.—We call special attention to the advertisement, in another column, of Vesey & Cartright, No. 151 Main street. They have wines, spirits, and a new brand of very superior ale.

MUNICIPAL COURT.—Yesterday the criminal side of this Court adjourned to court in course. The law side (July term) convened and adjourned to Friday, the 5th inst., at which time the first call of the trial docket will be had.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

At a regular meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, held yesterday, July 2d, 1867—Present: Hon. W. O. Lofland, Mayor; Chairman Halbert, Aldermen Glancy, Powers, Johnson, Cochran, Wickersham, Amis, Balling, Lynn, Holst, O'Donnell, Townsend, Shaw, Lemon, Smith and Passmore.

A quorum being announced, the Chairman took his seat and called the Board to order, when the roll of Aldermen was called and the minutes of the five preceding meetings read and approved.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE.

The following message from the Mayor was read to the Board:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, MEMPHIS, July 2, 1867.

Gentlemen of the Board of Aldermen:

As my course touching the award of bids for Nicolson pavement, has been questioned both in your meetings and elsewhere, I deem it proper to lay before you and our constituents the reasons which prompted me to express any partiality for any particular bid.

It is well known that the plan proposed for paving the streets was intended as a financial measure, as well as for improving our streets—a measure by which we all hoped and expected to relieve the city, to a very considerable extent, of its present embarrassments. The proposed plan had been submitted to many of the most practical and experienced men in the various departments of the business community, and met with almost universal favor and approbation—all alleging, however, that the success of the scheme would depend in a great measure upon the ability of the contractors to prosecute the work with dispatch, and to an early completion, without being compelled to realize the proceeds of bonds in such time, and at such rates, as would further depreciate our already fallen credit.

Believing that the proposition for proposals would invite desirable bidders, I made propositions to various parties for money to pay the July interest on our bonds, as well as to pay the debt to Mr. Fisher, who had made a levy on $280,000 of our railroad stock, and to pay a note held by one of the banks since September last, amounting to $30,000, the payment of which would release a large amount of bonds held as collateral, the amount required for these purposes aggregating about $75,000; a large portion of which I had a positive assurance of getting, provided the award of the bid was made to parties whose known ability to execute the contract guaranteed speedy completion; and the same assurance still exists.

After the bids had been opened and the contestants narrowed down to two parties, I laid aside my personal preference, which was well known to be for Mr. Taft, whose bid, with that of his friends, was the lowest as a whole, and favored the bid of Messrs. Jones & Greenlaw because I knew that would be the immediate result in raising money for the purposes above mentioned, and believed the general and final result would be greatly to the advantage of the city.

While the award for the bids was being considered by your honorable body, Mr. C. P. Norris, of the First National Bank, informed me that $37,000 of the amount required had been left in that Bank, by parties in no wise connected with the contract, for investment, and the amount would be subject to the control of your Board in the event the award was made to Messrs. Greenlaw & Jones, and the same assurances were made by other moneyed men and institutions.

In view of the great interests at stake in the success of this undertaking, and believing that the erection of waterworks and sewers and many other improvements for the advancement of the prosperity and welfare of our city, depend upon the completion and credit of the paving bonds, and with my personal knowledge of the character, ability and energy of Greenlaw & Jones and the assurances of their possessing the confidence of many of the leading and controlling elements of the community, together with my great anxiety for the success of all measures, financial and otherwise, of your Board. In view of all these facts and circumstances, I ask, am I not excusable for favoring the bid of these gentlemen? I have no personal objections to the other bidders. It was the absence of any personal knowledge of their pecuniary ability to undertake a contract of such magnitude, that I objected to a contract with them involving over a million of dollars, and upon the successful and judicious management of which depends so much of the present and future welfare of this city.

I make these statements in justification of my action that has been questioned. I have acted in the matter under the belief that I fully appreciated the responsibility resting upon me, and having given my reasons for so acting, I claim to be released from all responsibility for the results or a finality at variance with my convictions. Upon you it must rest, assuring you at the same time that when you shall have made your final disposition of this subject, I shall exert all my ability and energy to execute your decree. I shall extend to the contractors, whoever they may be, all the aid in my power.

I did not understand until yesterday that it was the desire of any of your body to have a meeting to consider nominations, intending to lay before you all the candidates that would offer [illegible], and let the matter be determined without any previous understanding; but as there seems to be a disposition on the part of some of the members to have a meeting to discuss the claims of the applicants I will call you together at such time as may be suggested. Respectfully,

W. O. LOFLAND, Mayor.

REPORTS.

PRIVILEGE TAX COLLECTOR.

OFFICE OF TAX COLLECTOR ON PRIVILEGES, MEMPHIS, TENN., July 12, 1867.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Memphis:

The collections of this office for the month of June, (as per report of the City Controller,) amounted to eight thousand six hundred and thirty-three dollars ($8,633).
Respectfully, etc.,
JAMES D. DAVIS,
Tax Collector on Privileges.

CITY HOSPITAL.

GENERAL HOSPITAL, JUNE 30, 1867.

Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to submit the following report for the month of June, 1867:

Number of patients remaining last report	64
Number admitted since	80
Number treated	144
Number discharged	62
Number of deaths	10
Number eloped	1
Number remaining in hospital	72

Of this number there were admitted during the month:

Americans	15
Irish	33
Germans	7
Scotch	1
English	1
Grecian	1
Negroes	14

Herewith is forwarded a statement of accounts for Marines for the month, a copy of which has been furnished the Surveyor of Customs for settlement with the City Treasurer, in compliance with instructions from the Mayor. I also inclose a statement of accounts against the county for board, medicines, and burial expenses of county paupers, from November 1, 1866, to July 1, 1867, which is a correct transcript from the hospital register for that time, the account for the county being made out upon the same principles as the agreement made and entered into by Mayor Park and Judge Leonard. It is impossible to furnish a correct account for the time commencing June 1, 1866, and ending November 1, 1866, but it can be closely approximated at any time that the City Attorney may direct it so to be done.

While on this subject I would suggest that some more definite arrangement be made with the county in this matter. There is now a County Hospital, and should cholera continue to increase in the city, the wards of that hospital will be filled with patients who are strictly city paupers, or who come strictly under the city's provisions. As it now is there is no distinction made.

I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully your ob't serv't,
J. M. KELLER,
Physician in charge.

MARKET MASTERS.

MEMPHIS, July 1, 1867.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN—My collections for the month of June amount to four hundred and twenty-eight dollars and fifteen cents ($428 15).

Very respectfully,
W. L. SPALDING,
North Market Master.

MEMPHIS, June 29, 1867.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN—The collections of South Memphis Market from June 1st to June 29th, amount to two hundred and ninety-four dollars and forty cents.

Most respectfully submitted,
JAMES RYAN,
South Market Master.

CITY INSPECTOR.

CITY INSPECTOR'S OFFICE, MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE, July 1, 1867.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen:

Respectfully submitted,
THOMAS MALONE,
Street Commissioner.

CITY CONTROLLER.

CONTROLLER'S OFFICE (City Hall), MEMPHIS, TENN., July 2, 1867.

Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen:

Sometime since, I found upon the old records of the city that fourteen city bonds, for $1,000 each, had been hypothecated, with R C Topp as collateral security, for a loan to the city of $7,000, and that although the $7,000 was paid in 1861.

On the books of this office I found that the coupons of these identical bonds had been paid by the city up to a recent period, and therefore called upon Colonel Topp for information, when he remarked that it was "all about" as supposed he had the bonds or knew anything about them, and closed by expressing it as his conclusion "that some of the city officers had used them."

Subsequently I have procured a copy of a receipt which reads as follows:

"NEW YORK, April 14, 1864.

"Received of F. H. Cossitt, fourteen Memphis city bonds, $1,000 each, with coupons from July, 1859, which were loaned me, as President of the Memphis and Ohio Railroad Company, to be used as collateral security in purchasing equipments for said company, and which were left with F. H. Cossitt, and by him this day returned to me to be returned to the city of Memphis. [Signed] "ROBERTSON TOPP,
"President Memphis and Ohio Railroad Company."

Still later, the City Register has found among his papers a penal bond for the return to the city of the bonds in question, signed by R. Topp, President Memphis and Ohio Railroad Company, R. Topp and R. C. Brinkley, security.

I will add that at the date of the receipt given to Mr. Cossitt, Colonel Topp was not President of the company he represented himself to be, nor had he been for several years.

I understand some communication has been made to the Mayor on this subject, and respectfully refer the whole matter to your action.

Respectfully,
W. CLARK, City Controller.

CITY ENGINEER.

OFFICE CITY ENGINEER, July 2, 1867.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Memphis:

GENTLEMEN: I herewith present an account of the expenditures in this department for the month of June:

BUILDING SEWER
Intersection DeSoto and Pontotoc streets	$210 00
RELAYING SIDEWALK
Corner Adams and Second	105 00
INCIDENTALS FOR PAVING
1000 stakes, of Cubbins & Gunn	40 00
1 level and general repairs	235 00
Stationery, U. F. Chamberlain & Co., bill	44 10
Total	$634 10

Under present circumstances I deem it proper to report that, to this date, seven sections of the Nicolson and two of the stone pavement have been constructed, and bills rendered to the contractors for same. The seven sections of the Nicolson contain 14,142 square yards and 3858 72-100 feet of stone curb, costing $61,[illegible], of which the city's portion is $8,381 64. The two sections of stone pavement—one of which is an alley section—contain 3,173 53 100 square yards 33 66-100 feet new curb and 158 36-100 old curb reset, at a cost of $11,891 57, of which the city's portion is $[illegible].

In all there will be about ten lineal miles of pavement, requiring the survey of Front, Second, Poplar, Adams, Jefferson, Madison, Union, Beale, Shelby and DeSoto streets, Center, Second, and all cross alleys from Front to Third streets; and, in order to obtain the proper lines for the corners and for pavement gradients and intersections on the above named streets, it is necessary to run all the intervening streets and alleys. Sixteen miles of street and alley lines have already been run. For every mile of pavement laid over ten thousand stakes have to be set for the corners and lines of streets and alleys, for grading and the curvatures of carriage ways. In addition, new stakes have frequently to be set, as many become displaced by hauling near the work and by wagons and other vehicles passing.

Under the paving ordinance I am required to make a plat of all the property fronting on the streets and alleys to be paved; to ascertain the owner's name, and the dimensions of each lot by deed and actual measurement; to keep a record of all information relating thereto; to measure each section as finished, and to furnish the bills against the property owners to the contractors and enter the same in books prepared for the purpose.

The Nicolson pavement under contract and projected will be about 255,680 yards, and 82,780 lineal feet of curbing, estimated to cost $1,418,716 60. The stone pavement will be about 49,600 yards, estimated to cost about $188,480; total, $1,607,196 60.

The engineering expenses and salaries of Inspectors will be about $25,000, which is fully provided for by an estimate to be deducted from the contract price for the work.

About twenty miles of platting will have to be made; so far, nine and a quarter miles have been completed in conformity with the ordinance.

The above work, to be done in a manner commensurate with its importance, requires all the force now employed in my department.
Respectfully,
FRANCIS FOSTER, City Engineer.

A monthly financial report from the City Controller was read and ordered filed.

CITY TAX COLLECTOR.

OFFICE CITY TAX COLLECTOR, MEMPHIS, July 1, 1867.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Memphis:

GENTLEMEN: My collections for the month of June amount to $37,428 15.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
JOHN H. BOWEN, Tax Collector.

REPORT OF THE FIRE WARDEN FOR THE MONTH OF JUNE.

June 6th, at half past two o'clock a.m., corner Beale and Wellington streets—paint shop and dwelling house. Cause, accidental. Damage, $400; insurance, $400. Owned by B. Hunt; occupied by West & Hawkins.

June 8th, at half past one o'clock a.m., corner Orleans and Washington—dwelling house. Cause, incendiary. Damage, $1,800; insurance, $1,800. Owned by Henry Hampton; not occupied. At this fire the Department deserves great credit for the manner in which the engines were handled.

June 28th, at one o'clock p.m., corner of Court and Fourth streets—cotton pickery and stables. Cause, accidental. Damage, $4,600; insurance, none. Occupied by Larkin and Southern Express company.

Damage by fire during the month	$6,800

RIVER NEWS.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
WEDNESDAY, July 3, 1867.

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

Weather warm and cloudy. The river here is declining slowly. The Ohio is falling at Louisville, with four feet two inches in the canal. At St. Louis the river is reported rising slowly. White river is falling slowly, with a good stage to Jacksonport. The Arkansas is declining, with five feet to Little Rock. Business on the wharf continues dull, with light shipments to all points.

ARRIVALS.

Steamer Westmoreland, New Orleans.
" J. D. Perry, Evansville.
" Pilgrim, Little Rock.
" Welcome, St. Louis.

DEPARTURES.

Steamer Westmoreland, Cincinnati.
" City of Alton, St. Louis.
" Lady, St. Francis river.
" Mollie Hambleton, St. Francis river.
" Commercial, White river.
" Welcome, Vicksburg.

BOATS IN PORT.

Gleaner, Clifton, J. D. Perry, Pilgrim and Rose Hambleton.

MISCELLANEOUS.

There will be an excursion for picnickers on the 4th to Island 40, whose beautiful groves stand invitingly ready to receive a vast number of those who are tired of the brick walls and the dust of the city. The John D. Perry, commanded by Captain J. Lee Finney, has been chartered for the occasion, and will make three several trips during the day to the island, at nine, twelve and three o'clock, thus enabling those who may so elect to return to the city, after a brief enjoyment of a pleasant ride, and the basket festivities of the grounds. That this delightful excursion may be accessible to all, the fare for the round trip has been fixed at the low price of one dollar. The Perry is a fine boat, ably commanded, has plenty of room, is spacious, safe and fleet—just the boat for an excursion. Those who want to spend the day in the groves should be on board with their baskets at the earliest hour.

In the evening, say eight o'clock, the J. D. Perry will make a moonlight excursion down the river. The fare for lady and gentleman will be three dollars. A splendid band of music will attend both excursions, and dancing on board will be the order of both day and night. The most perfect order and decorum will be observed, and families will find this the most favorable opportunity that will be presented for enjoyment during the season.

The departures include the Commercial, for White river; Mollie Hambleton and Lady, for St. Francis river; City of Alton, for St. Louis, with 400 bales of cotton for the Diamond Line.

The Westmoreland passed up yesterday from New Orleans, for Cincinnati.

The Welcome, from St. Louis, for Vicksburg, passed down Monday night.

The Pilgrim arrived from Little Rock yesterday morning. She will be repaired, and will ply in the Memphis and Little Rock trade during the low water season.

The fine steamer Victor No. 2, Captain House, is the regular Wednesday Hale's Point and bends packet. She leaves the wharf to-day, at five p.m. Mr. John Grehan is her polite and obliging purser.

The Louisiana, Captain Phillips, will leave the City wharf-boat to-day, at five p.m., for New Orleans.

The Government wrecking boat, General Totten succeeded in blowing up the sunken gunboat Jeff Thompson, which the Platt Valley ran into last spring. The charge was seven hundred pounds of powder, which blew the wreck in every direction, scattering the railroad iron with which the gunboat was plated far and near. The obstruction is entirely removed, and will cause no more disasters. The Captain of the General Totten volunteered yesterday to clear out the wreck at the foot of Monroe street, if the city would make the request. The old wreck is a great obstruction at that part of the wharf, and it should be removed.

Mr. Wash. Want, an owner in the St. Patrick, and Mr. Wick Pyne, purchased yesterday Messrs. Kendig & Co's and Captain Tom Berry's two-thirds interest in the St. Patrick, at the value of $50,000 for the whole boat. She will be put in order for the fall trade in the Vicksburg trade.

The Clifton, Captain Stein, is advertised to leave for Cincinnati to-day at five p.m.

The fine steamer Gleaner, Captain King, is receiving for the Arkansas river and all way points, and will leave to-day at five p.m. She is the only boat that is receiving for the Arkansas, and will be the only boat leaving for the Arkansas this week. Mr. John Fenwick presides in the office.

The steamer J. D. Perry, Captain Finney, arrived from Evansville, yesterday morning, with a good trip. On account of the dull times she has been laid up for a few days, to repair and repaint. She will resume her regular trips in the Evansville trade in ten days. During her last trip to Evansville, she was fined one hundred dollars, with costs of sixty-five, for not being posted as to some new Government regulations. When Captain Finney took charge of the J. D. Perry, he paid to the Surveyor of this port, $300 dollars for papers and tonnage dues, and Captain Finney was under the impression that his papers were complete.

EXCURSION TO HATCHIE LAKE.—Lots of fun and fishing may be anticipated at the excursion to Hatchie Lake, on the steamer R. E. Wright, on the Fourth of July. The boat will leave the foot of Market street, at seven and ten o'clock a.m., and return at four and six o'clock p.m. There is to be a splendid band, and ground has been prepared for dancing. The fishing in the lake is said to be excellent.

TUESDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES.

Facts and Fancies from Washington

Late Foreign News per Atlantic Cable.

Interesting Ceremonies at the Paris Exposition.

Announcement and Distribution of Prizes.

Speech of the Emperor Napoleon.

The Alabama Claims in Parliament.

Continuation of the Surratt Trial.

Great Destitution in North Carolina.

Joyful Demonstrations in the Dominion of Canada.

PARIS, July 2.—The distribution of prizes at the Exposition was made in the presence of a great multitude, who filled the aisles and circles of the great building and overflowed the gardens of the Champ de Mars. Napoleon and Eugenie with the Prince Imperial and Prince Napoleon and their suites, proceeded to the Exposition in eight carriages, each drawn by six horses. They were accompanied by the Sultan of Turkey and his suite in six splendid carriages, each drawn by six fine horses, richly decorated. When the initiatory ceremonies were concluded, the Emperor rose from his throne and said: "The people and kings have come here to crown the idea of peace and conciliation. France is proud to be great, prosperous and free, yet she is not unnerved by national joys. We can see her national fibers vibrate for the honor of France, but this noble susceptibility should not create fear, for worlds repose as we here prove our anxiety for peace."

The Emperor closed his speech by saying the Exposition marks a new era of harmony and progress, and triumph of the grand moral principles which, with justice, can alone establish thrones and ennoble humanity. Great enthusiasm followed the conclusion of the Emperor's speech, and cries of "Vive l'Napoleon," "Vive l'Empereur" continued several minutes. When the excitement subsided, the Imperial Commission proceeded to announce the distribution of prizes; and at the conclusion of this ceremony the Emperor and his distinguished visitor, the Sultan, accompanied by their suites, returned to the Tuilleries.

LONDON, July 2.—In the House of Commons Lord Stanley stated that the Government was making slow progress in negotiating with the United States in regard to the Alabama case, but did not despair of achieving happy results. The Foreign Office will soon lay before the House all the documents and correspondence in the case. A large number of English claims against the United States have been filed.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—In the Surratt trial yesterday Louis J. Weichman was cross-examined by the counsel for the defense. Dr. Archibald McMillan being sworn, testified to being on board the steamer Peruvian, on which Surratt took passage for Europe; was very intimate with Surratt and conversed with him day after day; that Surratt, just previous to his departure from Montreal, was in company with Beverly Tucker, General Ripley, Colorado Jewett and others, and that he told him he had received money from the Confederate Secretary of State, Benjamin, $70,000 at one time, and $30,000 at another.

Henry J. Raymond is supposed to be renominated Minister to Austria, Bancroft for Prussia, and General Thomas Kilby Smith, consul to Havana.

A deplorable account is given of the destitution in Wake county, North Carolina. At least three hundred families have not more than four days' supplies; some had no meat for weeks, no bread for days, or flour for months, and no sugar or coffee for years.

The Agricultural Department estimates the wheat crop this year at 200,000 bushels.

MOBILE, July 2.—Five negroes were sworn in as policemen by the Mayor yesterday.

TORONTO, C. W., July 2.—To-day is observed as a general holiday. The city is gayly decorated with flags. A review of troops, regulars and volunteers, was witnessed by an immense concourse. To-night the principal buildings will be illuminated, with a grand display of fireworks.

It is universally understood that Sir N. F. Bellow will be appointed Governor of Quebec.

Generals Williams and Doyle continue as Governors of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, provisionally, and General Stisted is spoken of for the same in Ontario temporarily.

CAPTURE OF SANTA ANNA.

Apprehension that he Will be Shot.

Protest of the Captain.

A dispatch from New Orleans, dated the 29th, confirms the capture of Santa Anna at Sisal. On the morning after he had been seized and taken on board of a United States man-of-war, he was informed officially that he had permission to take passage on the Virginia for Havana, or any port in the United States, but that he could not land at Vera Cruz. He was then transferred from the Tacony to the Virginia, and at once set sail for Sisal, Yucatan, where he arrived on the 11th. A very short time after coming to anchor the Virginia was boarded by Captain Mariano Robledo Romero, a Mexican officer, who took General Santa Anna by force, and conveyed him to the shore. Captain Deaken, master of the Virginia, first refused to deliver up his passenger, but was obliged to yield when he found that the three Mexican gunboats lying in the harbor had trained their guns upon him, and were ready to open a fire upon his unarmed vessel in the event of his disobeying the order of Captain Romero. He therefore offered no resistance to the arrest of General Santa Anna, but protested strongly against the outrage, pledging himself to bring the matter to the notice of the Government at Washington.

The prevailing opinion among officers and men at Sisal was that Santa Anna would be shot by the Liberals.

The Virginia left on the 13th and reached Havana on the 17th. The news of Santa Anna's arrest produced great excitement there, and many speculations are indulged in relative to the action of our Government.

The following protest from Captain Deaken and others, officers and passengers of the Virginia, has just been published:

WHEREAS, On the 12th day of June, A. D. 1867, a Mexican officer, by name Mariano Lobledo Romero, accompanied by a file of soldiers, boarded the American steamer Virginia, lying at anchor at the port of Sisal, Yucatan, and by force did take therefrom the persons of Antonia Lopez de Santa Anna and L. Vidal of Rivas, passengers from Vera Cruz to Havana, against their will, and notwithstanding the formal protest of the master of said steamer; now be it known, that the said master hereby solemnly protests against the action of said Romero, and his superiors responsible for all damages caused unto the said Santa Anna and Vidal, and the said steamer Virginia. The master of said steamship further declares—

First: That Santa Anna was placed on board the steamer by Commodore F. A. Roe, commanding the United States man of war Tacony, on the 8th of June, 1867, and that said Commodore Roe, gave orders to the master of the Virginia to take said Santa Anna on board.

Second: That the said Santa Anna declared to the master of the Virginia that his wish and intention was to disembark at the port of Havana, Island of Cuba, and that he intended to remain there.

Third: That three Mexican schooners, all men of war, surrounded the steamer and pointed their guns at the steamship, and by their menacing attitude and threats that they would, if the steamship moved, fire into her; and futhermore, that the commander of the Mexican gunboat was informed by the captain of the Virginia that said Santa Anna and Vidal were under the protection of the American flag—the said Santa Anna, as already stated, having been placed on board the steamship by a United States naval officer, had made the master of the steamship responsible for the safe delivery of the persons of the said Santa Anna and Vidal at the port which they might elect.

In testimony whereof the undersigned, Master of the Virginia, the purser, the first officer, Hans Baren Von Norlitz, Luis Baron Luttwitz, and Edward Gottlieb, Interpreter and Aid-de-Camp to General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna, have all signed their names at Havana, this the 15th of June, 1867.

Grand Trial of Skill between English and French Thieves at the Paris Exposition.

Paris (May 7) Correspondence of London Advertiser.]

The most successful demonstration of British industry that has as yet been developed by the Exposition has been displayed by English pickpockets. In the art of "faking a cly" they are unrivaled, and to this valuable acquirement they have now added that of eluding the vigilance of the sergent de ville and of the private policemen, who lurk in plain cloths in places where they are least expected. Since competition is so much in fashion now-a-days, a trial of strength and skill has of late come on between the French and English thieves. The former were stung with maddened jealously at hearing the complaints of lost watches and purses, and challenged their rivals to a conflict, which came off a few days since. Seven English and seven French thieves started on their pedatory expedition through the exhibition, and agreed to meet at a cafe in the boulevards, or rather at a restaurateur's where they had previously engaged a cabinet particulier, and had ordered a supper to be "stood" by the vanquished. They met at the appointed hour, and you will be proud of your countrymen's superiority when you learn that they triumphantly displayed forty-five watches and nine portmonaies, whereas the French tyros in the noble art could display but ten watches three port monaies and half a dozen handkerchiefs, "small deer," which are disdained by the professed pickpocket, and are only "faked" during a novitiate in the profession. They magnanimously avowed themselves vanquished and agreed to recognize the superiority of the victors in the form most pleasing to them by half a dozen of champagne, followed by bowls of blazing punch in quick succession.

Up to this stage all had been highly gratifying in our national pride, but the hour of Britain's humiliation was drawing nigh. Our countrymen fell under the table; their hosts, though they had not read the tale of Falstaff's disaster at Gadshill, fell upon their prostrate foes, eased them of their plunder, and retired with the forty-five watches, the purses, etc., and moreover left the waiters instructions to apply for payment of the bill to the gentleman up stairs on the floor.

Rockbridge Alum Springs,

VIRGINIA.

THIS favorite and delightful watering place will be open JUNE FIRST. Arrangements are making to render it more than ever attractive to all in quest of recreation, while to the invalid its remarkable medicinal waters hold out new hopes of health.

Its reputation is established as a cure for SCROFULA and most of the Glandular and Cutaneous affections, CHRONIC DIARRHEA and DYSENTERY, DYSPEPSIA, BRONCHITIS, THRUSH, Affections of Kidneys and Bladder, DROPSY and PILES. In all anaemic conditions of the system and broken down states of the constitution, Loss of Appetite and general Nervous Prostration, their powers and virtues as a Restorative are without a known rival among the mineral waters of the world. They are especially indicated in the ailments peculiar to the female constitution.

The Springs are distant only eleven hours from Richmond and twelve hours from Washington by rail; in the midst of the grand mountain ranges of Virginia; in the same county with the famous "Natural Bridge," (from which it takes its name,) and near to Lexington, Washington College, and the Military Institute; the home of LEE, and the tomb of JACKSON.

For all particulars of routes, location and properties of the water, see Springs' pamphlet, sent free by mail.

The bottled water and the salts of the water (or "mass,") can at all times be had fresh and genuine from Hegeman & Co., New York; Coleman & Rogers, Baltimore; Purcell, Ladd & Co., Richmond, and A. B. Rucker, Lynchburg, Va.

A superior BAND OF MUSIC for both lawn and ball-room in attendance during the season.

THE CAYCE SPRINGS PLACE

THIS picturesque, romantic and popular Southern resort is now open to invalids and pleasure seekers, after thorough improvements and additions. The qualities and properties of the various MINERAL and FREE STONE SPRINGS of "Cayce," are ESTABLISHED AS EQUAL to any on the continent.

Carriages will be in attendance on the arrival of each train at Thompson's Station, on the Nashville and Decatur railroad, to carry visitors and baggage to the Springs without delay.

TERMS:

Boarding per day	$3 0
Boarding per week	15 0

Children and servants half price. Twenty per cent. deducted for families.

Omnibus fare 50 cents. Baggage as usual.

Alleghany Springs, Montgomery Co., Virginia.

THIS celebrated Watering Place having undergone thorough repairs, and been furnished throughout every department with entirely new and first class furniture, will be opened for the reception of visitors on the 15th day of June.

The reputation of this water is so extensive and so firmly established that it is useless to enumerate the particular diseases for which it is a specific. The proprietors have endeavored to make it as attractive as any Watering Place in the mountains of Virginia.

Comfortable coaches will meet each train at Shawsville for the conveyance of passengers to the Springs. The resident partner will be assisted in the management by a gentleman of experience, and no pains spared to render visitors comfortable.

CASTELLAR'S HAIR EXTERMINATOR,

For Removing Superfluous Hair.

TO the Ladies, especially, this invaluable depilatory recommends itself as being an almost indispensable article to female beauty. It is easily applied, does not burn or injure the skin, but acts directly on the roots. It is warranted to remove superfluous hair from low foreheads, or from any part of the body, completely, totally and radically extirpating the same leaving the skin soft, smooth and natural. This is the only article used by the French, and is the only real effectual depilatory in existence. Price 75 cents per package, sent post-paid to any address, on receipt of an order, by

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

At the wonderful revelations made by the great Astrologist

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

SHE reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, etc., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness inclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, inclosing a small lock of hair.

Which is cheaper, lighter, less intricate, occupies less space, consumes less fuel than any other engine, and is superior in every other way, it being in fact a double cut-off engine, without the friction of a double set of valves with their multiform attachments, and for its superior merits was

AWARDED THE GOLD MEDAL

At the Maryland Institute Fair, in October, 1866, over all other engines. This invention, therefore, forms the most radical and entire change in steam engines which has occurred since the days of Watts, being durable, accurate, and economical in operation and space beyond all comparison with the past, and at far less original cost than ever before attained. T. F. KENYON, Esq., Assistant Secretary:

I have recently heard that some of the Agents of this Company are also Agents for the National Home Insurance Company, of Louisville, Ky., and have connected my name with it. You will discontinue at once all agents of this Company who are agents for the National Home Insurance Company.

I know nothing prejudicial to that Company, but I am not now, nor have I at any time, had any connection with it.

Respectfully,
N. B. FORREST,
je25-1w President Planter's Insurance Company.

A CARD.

To my old Friends in West Tennessee, Mississippi and Arkansas.

HAVING accepted a permanent Agency for the ST. LOUIS MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, I would respectfully ask the attention of my old friends to that Institution as a safe, certain and reliable medium through which they may assure their families against want in the event of death, or themselves from an impoverished old age in case of ill success in life.

Mr. N. S. OTIS is associated with me, and is hereby commended to public confidence. Our office is at No. 42 Madison street (rear room), DeSoto Block, where we shall be happy to impart any needed information to those desiring Life Insurance.

MEDICAL.

FRENCH MEDICINES

PREPARED BY

GRIMAULT & CO.

Chemists to H. I. H. Prince Napoleon.

PARIS.

THESE different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of chemistry therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names sufficiently indicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved efficacious, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorized by the government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellency of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO.'S medicines.

DOCTOR LERAS'
(Doctor of Medicine)

LIQUID PHOSPHATE OF IRON.

The newest and most esteemed medicine in cases of CHLOROSIS, PAINS IN THE STOMACH, DIFFICULT DIGESTION, DISMENORRHEA, ANIMEA, GENERAL DEBILITY and POORNESS OF BLOOD.

It is particularly recommended to regulate the functions of nature, and to all ladies of delicate constitution, as well as to persons suffering under any kind of debility whatsoever. It is the preservative of health par excellence in all warm and relaxing climates.

NO MORE COD LIVER OIL.
GRIMAULT'S

Syrup of Iodized Horse Radish!

This medicine has been administered with the utmost success in the hospitals of Paris. It is a perfect substitute for COD LIVER OIL, and has been found most beneficial in DISEASES OF THE CHEST, SCROFULA, LYMPHATIC DISORDERS, GREEN SICKNESS, MUSCULAR ATONY and LOSS OF APPETITE. It regenerates the constitution in purifying the blood, it being the most powerful deparative known. It has also been applied with happy results in DISEASES OF THE SKIN. Further, it will be found to be of great benefit to young children subject to HUMORS and OBSTRUCTION OF THE GLANDS.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
GRIMAULT'S

Syrup of Hypophosphite of Lime!

This new medicine is considered to be a sovereign remedy in cases of PHTHISIS and other DISEASES OF THE LUNGS. It promptly removes all the most serious symptoms. The cough is relieved, night perspirations cease, and the patient is rapidly restored to health.

N. B.—Be sure to see that the signature of GRIMAULT & CO. is affixed to the bottle, as this syrup is liable to imitations.

NO MORE DIFFICULT OR PAINFUL DIGESTION.
DR. BURIN DU BUISSON'S
(Laureate of the Paris Imperial Academy of Medicine)

Digestive Lozenges!

This delicious preparation is always prescribed by the most reputed medical men in France in cases of derangements of the digestive functions, such as GASTRITIS, GASTRALGIA, LONG AND LABORIOUS DIGESTION, wind in the stomach and bowels, EMACIATION, JAUNDICE and COMPLAINTS OF THE LIVER AND LOINS.

Nervous Headaches, Neuralgia, Diarrhea, Dysentery,

INSTANTANEOUSLY CURED BY

Grimault's Guarana.

This vegetable substance, which grows in the Brazils, has been employed since time immemorial to cure INFLAMMATION OF THE BOWELS. It has proved of late to be of the greatest service in cases of CHOLERA, as it is preventive and a cure in cases of Diarrhea.

NO MORE COPAIBA AND CUBEBS.

Grimault's Capsules and Liquid Extract of Matico Vegetalis.

Where all other medicines have failed, these preparations will always effect a cure. They insure rapid and extraordinary cure of severe, recent and chronic cases of private diseases. They are used in the hospitals of Paris by the celebrated Dr. Ricord, and are found greatly superior to all hitherto known mineral remedies and copaiba and cubebs. The injection is used in recent and capsules in the more chronic cases.

General Depots:
In Paris, at GRIMAULT & CO.'S, 45 rue Richelieu.
In Memphis, at G. W. JONES & CO.'S.
In New York, Mr. M. FOUGERA, 30 New William street.

MEDICAL.

RELIEF TO ALL AFFLICTED!

EDWARD WILDER'S

FOUR GREAT

HEALTH-RESTORING

REMEDIES.

EDWARD WILDER'S

FAMOUS

Stomach Bitters

Will cure DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT, and all species of INDIGESTION, INTERMITTENT FEVER, FEVER and AGUE, and all PERIODICAL DISEASES.

It will give immediate relief in Cholic and Flux.

It will cure Costiveness.

It is a mild and delightful Invigorant for delicate Females.

It is a safe Anti-Bilious Alterative and Tonic for all Family purposes.

It is a powerful recuperant after the frame has been debilitated or reduced by sickness.

It is an excellent Appetizer as well as strengthener of the digestive forces.

It is desirable alike as a Corrective and a mild Cathartic.

☞ The body of all similar preparations is common raw Whisky or Alcohol, which contains a large amount of Fusil Oil and other poisonous substances, whilst the body of Edward Wilder's Stomach Bitters is pure Old Bourbon or Copper-distilled Whisky—the best and purest Whisky known or produced. This fact at once recommends and places these Bitters at the head of all other known preparations for all the diseases for which they are recommended, as is testified by numberless certificates from the ablest Medical men and from the Ministry

SARSAPARILLA AND POTASH

An unfailing and rapid cure for SCROFULA in all its forms every known variety of Constitutional SYPHILIS or VENEREAL DISEASE, NEURALGIA, SKIN DISEASES—no matter how old or inveterate—Chronic Rheumatism, Scrofulous Sore Eyes, Glandular Swellings of the Neck or elsewhere, Chronic Chills and Fever, Tetter, Weeping Sore Leg, Ulcers of every kind, Pimples on the Face, Ringworm, Scald-Head, Falling of the Hair or Allopecia, White Swelling, Hip-Joint Disease or Morbus Coxarius, Chronic Erysipelas, Dropsy Ague-Cake, etc.

☞ For the rapid and permanent cure of the above Diseases this preparation stands unrivalled. A CURE IS GUARANTEED IN EVERY CASE where it is used according to directions.

EDWARD WILDER'S

COMPOUND EXTRACT

OF

WILD CHERRY

This preparation is specially recommended as affording certain and prompt relief for COUGHS, COLDS and CATARRHS of every description. In Bronchitis, Laringytis and Asthma or Phthisic it gives immediate comfort and relief. It is also admirably adapted to the relief of the cough and difficulty of breathing in CONSUMPTION. It is also indispensable in Pneumonia or Winter Fever, Pleurisy, and every conceivable form of PULMONARY DISEASE attended with cough, difficulty of breathing, or pain. For taste, efficiency and power this medicine has no equal, and when used in any of the above diseases has never been known to fail to give almost instant relief, followed by certain and permanent cure.

EDWARD WILDER'S

Family Pills,

For the cure of CONSTIPATED and SLUGGISH BOWELS In these conditions of the alimentary canal they are GUARANTEED to be perfectly infallible. As a Purgative in all Fevers and Inflammatory diseases, in Acute Rheumatism, Inflammation of the Liver, Brain, Kidneys and Bladder, in Erysipelas, Fever and Ague, Acute Opthalmia or Sore Eyes, Fullness of the Head, Vertigo, Dizziness, Blindness, etc., they cannot be excelled. These Pills will be found, on trial, to be far superior to any known other combination of medicines in the rapid and certain cure of all the above diseases. They should be taken with Edward Wilder's Sarsaparilla and Potash in the diseases in which that remedy is recommended; and with Edward Wilder's Compound Extract of Wild Cherry in Coughs Colds, etc.; and with Edward Wilder's Stomach Bitters for Chills and Fevers and Fever and Ague.

REMEMBER

[illegible] tested in the Family circle by Chemical analysis, and at the Dispensaries throughout the country, for each and every Disease for which they are recommended, and that in no single case has any of them ever been known to fail in giving instant relief, followed by certain and permanent cure. Their medicinal virtue and power is attested alike by the ablest Medical men, and by the Ministry; and all, in a word, say of them that they are truly the FOUR GREATEST MEDICINES OF THE AGE, and that no family ought to be without them. They compose the best Family Medicine Chest that can be made

Call for "Edward Wild Famous Stomach Bitters," "Edward Wilder's Sarsaparill and Potash," "Edward Wilder's Compound Extract of Wild Cherry," "Edward Wilder's Family Pills," and have none other, as all others are secret remedies whilst the formulas of Edward Wilder's Medicines will be shown to any regular graduate of medicine.
